Democratic Candidate Repeats to Michigan Voters That Chairman Hays and Aides Are Deliberately Untruthful About Campaign Fund.

ATTEMPT IS ALLEGED TO NEWBERYZE

This Allusion Drew Cheers From Michigan Crowds. Governor Also Scores the G. O. P. Peace Policies and Lauds Wilson League.

Suggestion of Perjury By Republican Leaders Made by Governor Cox

Kalamazoo, Mich., September 3.—Suggestion of perjury in the Chicago investigation by the senate committee of the republican campaign contributions was made tonight by Governor Cox.

Referring to denials by republican leaders of his Pittsburgh charges that a republican quota list of $3,145,000 was made for fifty-one cities, Governor Cox said to his audience here:

"You know that when denial was made at Chicago of the existence of a quota, men were deliberately telling an untruth and telling it under oath."

Battle Creek, Mich., September 3.—Governor Cox today made a whirlwind rush into his western campaign, making a dozen speeches throughout Michigan, renewing his attack on republican campaign contributions and peace policies.

Charges of a plot to buy the democratic presidential candidate in virtually every address of an itinerary which kept him on the road from the rear platform of his private car from before breakfast until late today. His principal address was at Lansing, the state capital, and here, with his closing address tonight at Kalamazoo, he also made numerous rear platform speeches.

Local favor was given by the governor to his addresses by constant reference to the election of Hiram Cox, the republican candidate of Michigan. The candidate declared an attempt was being made by the republican contributions "to Newberzyze the nation."

As proof of charges, the governor said to a large crowd on the state capitol lawn at Lansing, read from copies of the republican treasurer's official bulletin, presented in his Pittsburgh address, and also before the senate investigating committee and from an alleged list of subscriptions to the republican hand book of William Barnes, Jr., of New York. The latter, he said, comprised a list of prominent men named in the subscription list.

"These men are not making contributions to my fund. And there are three very definite reasons. First, they haven't been asked; second, they wouldn't be permitted to; and third, they probably wouldn't if they had the chance, because they don't approve of my policies."

Governor Hugh Dorsey Will Deliver Address To Big Throng Tonight

Candidate for Senate, Who Has Been Accorded Remarkable Ovations Over State, Will Speak at the Atlanta Theater at 8 O'Clock.

GOVERNOR CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS IN RACE

Records of Two Opponents Will Be Attacked by Speaker—City Attorney James L. Mayson Will Introduce Him to Audience.

After a triumphal tour of the state, in which he has been accorded the most remarkable ovations ever given a candidate for office, Gov. Hugh M. Dorsey will reach Atlanta today and will speak tonight at 8 o'clock at the Atlanta theater.

Governor Dorsey comes home with the assurance given him everywhere he has been, as well as from counties which he has not been able to visit, that he will lead the ticket against Mr. Watson, on September 8, with Senator Smith the third man in the race. He is fully confident he will be nominated for the senate in the first primary.

Demonstrations in the counties visited by Governor Dorsey gave convincing and unmistakable proof that the voters are not yet ready to depart with the traditions of democracy and are working to that end. Next Wednesday they will march to the polls to administer a stinging rebuke to the un-Americanism of Mr. Watson and to the undemocratic position of Senator Smith.

Mayson Will Preside City Attorney James L. Mayson, for many years a supporter of Senator Smith, but who has been unable to further stand for the senator's record, will preside at the meeting tonight. Mr. Mayson will speak briefly, presented Edmund W. Martin, a prominent attorney, who will introduce Governor Dorsey. The gathering will be opened with prayer by Rev. M. Ashby Jones.

There will be enthusiasm enough at the gathering to fire the most ardent Georgia democrat. In an aggressive and fearless manner Governor Dorsey has held up the standard of democracy and Americanism, while his opponents have wavered, and he has branded their desertion and treachery to the state.

PROPERTY VALUES IN FULL TO SHOW $20,000,000 GAIN

County Now Pays One-Fifth of All the Taxes Collected in Georgia, According to Lucien Harris.

BIG INCREASE SHOWN IN NEGRO PROPERTY

Increase of $2,125,000 Reported in the Country Districts Outside City of Atlanta.

An increase of approximately $20,000,000 in taxable property in Fulton county in the past year is shown in the county tax digest for 1920, which will be completed this afternoon by Tax Receiver T. M. Armistead.

The skyward leap of property values is remarkable and unprecedented in the history of any county in the state, according to Mr. Armistead. Last year property in this county was valued at $149,581,760.

Fulton county paid one-fifth of the taxes collected in the entire state, according to Lucien Harris, tax collector.

Figures compiled already by Mr. Armistead show that the negro property in the county has advanced from $2,656,055 in 1919 to $2,394,575 this year, which is an increase of $268,580.

Proportionately to white citizens in the county districts outside of the city of Atlanta has increased $2,125,000.

The general use of automobiles, and the ever increasing craze for jewelry by all classes of people are responsible in a large measure for the advance of values this year.

That the south is enjoying the greatest era of prosperity in its history is the opinion of officials who are optimistic over the final outcome of the strained financial condition of the county and state.

DYING MACSWINEY LIGHTING FLAMES OF IRISH REVOLT

Death of Cork Lord Mayor From Starvation in British Prison Will Be Signal for Ireland to Rise.

22D DAY OF FASTING FOR THE LORD MAYOR

He Is Unable to Speak and Almost Unconscious. British Government Preparing for Mighty Outburst to Follow MacSwiney's Death.

BY PERCY SARR, United News Staff Correspondent. London, September 3.—A great funeral for Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, is being planned to take place in the city of London, where he died, it is being arranged by MacSwiney's personal friends and other adherents of the Irish republican movement. This will be more than a funeral—it will be a series of demonstrations for "Irish freedom" in various centers of England and Ireland, according to Art O'Brien, president of the Gaelic league.

"His death is a foregone conclusion," said O'Brien. "The body will remain in England for probably a week because of the red tape that must be unwound to procure a coroner's verdict. The body will give time to have a public service in London before we take the body to Dublin for even greater funeral services there."

Friday MacSwiney was reported to be very low. But Downing street reported no change in the government's attitude and no chance of revocation of the decision to let MacSwiney choose death or life.

Irish publicists are preparing to make the most of MacSwiney's death, should he expire, as a matter of propaganda. They will appeal mainly to the Irish in England, Scotland, Australia, Canada.

Dorsey Scored Smith to His Face, And Then Gave Over the Meeting; Found Governor Ready and Waiting

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMON

It is not on record in Georgia, it is indeed, in this country, where a candidate for office has heretofore resorted to so unfair and reprehensible a trick designed to embarrass an opposing candidate as that attempted in Washington, in Wilkes county, Friday by Senator Hoke Smith in the frantic effort to stem the Dorsey tide that is sweeping the state from the sea to the hills.

BALLOT IS DENIED GEORGIA WOMEN IN STATE PRIMARY

Effort to Allow Them to Vote on September 8 Turned Down by Subcommittee, by Vote of 5 to 2.

MRS. M'LENDON MAKES PLEA FOR THE WOMEN

Battle Against Giving Them the Right to Vote Led by Judge James J. Flynt and Herman Milner.

Will Take Further Steps. Mrs. Mary L. McLendon, chairwoman of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage association, following the action of the subcommittee of the state democratic executive committee in refusing women of Georgia the right to participate in the September 8 primary, issued a statement that she and members of her organization will take further steps to secure the ballot for the women and that she will probably demand of the Fulton county tax receiver the right to register and to vote.

Chairman of the local League of Women Voters, stated late Friday night that she was "not in position to speak officially for her organization, but that further steps to secure Georgia women's right to suffrage would probably be taken immediately."

By a vote of 5 to 2 the subcommittee of the state democratic executive committee last night denied the women of Georgia the right to participate in the primary election of September 8.

Voting for the amended resolution that denied the women the right of suffrage in the primary were Judge J. J. Flynt, chairman; Herman Milner, Miller S. Bell, Secretary Hiram Gardner and Senator H. H. Elders.

H. H. Dean and Fernor Barrett opposed the majority resolution and sponsored a resolution introduced by the former which would have allowed the women to vote in the September 8 primary.

COLBY INFORMED OF REVOCATION BY GOV. ROBERTS

Transcript of House Proceedings Nullifying Ratification of the Anthony Amendment Forwarded to Washington.

ACTION WAS OPPOSED BY SUFFRAGE LEADERS

But Gov. Roberts Decided to Certify the Transcript. Anti-Suffragists Jubilant Over Action of the Governor.

Nashville, Tenn., September 3.—At the request of the house of representatives Governor Roberts late tonight forwarded to Secretary of State Colby a certified copy of the journal of that body of last Tuesday when the attempt was made to rescind its previous action upon the federal suffrage amendment by nonconcurring in the action of the senate in ratifying.

In transmitting the papers the governor merely attached a statement that "the attached paper is a full, true and correct copy or transcript of all entries appearing on the journal" upon Tuesday and that the clerk had authority to make and certify to the correctness of the transcript which was sent.

Transmission of the journal to Washington was not regarded tonight by the suffragists as affecting the validity of the proclamation previously by Secretary Colby of the ratification of the nineteenth amendment. Despite this action, however, the antoem of the governor's office was thronged during the day with suffrage leaders anxious to prevail on him against certifying the house's recent action.

The anti-ratificationists were jubilant tonight, because they interpreted the sending of the statement of the house's action to Secretary Colby as meaning that this record would become a part of the evidence that is to be used in the courts to overthrow the validity of the suffrage amendment's ratification by Tennessee.

TEMPERATURE SETBACK FOR ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS. Washington, September 3.—Opponents of woman suffrage received a temporary setback today in their efforts to expedite appeal from the decision of Justice Bailey, of the District of Columbia supreme court, refusing an injunction to prevent Secretary of State Colby from promulgating the suffrage amendment.

Chief Justice Smith, of the District of Columbia court of appeals, denied the petition of suffrage opponents as represented in the American constitutional league for certification of the case to the United States supreme court without waiting for a decision by the appellate tribunal.

The chief justice held that he lacked authority to certify under a decision of the United States supreme court, which held that such certification could be made only where the decision of the local appellate tribunal was final. As there is a constitutional question involved in the suffrage case, there would be a right of appeal from a decision of the court of appeals to the United States supreme court. Counsel for the anti-suffragists, however, have not abandoned hope of getting the case into the highest court in the land before appeals day, and when the court of appeals convenes October 4 will make a motion to advance the case on the calendar and probably request that their contention be overruled in order that they may appeal at once to the United States supreme court.

Five thousand women have registered in this city since the suffrage amendment became law. The rush of applicants has been so great that Registrar M. E. Morris announced this afternoon he would keep his office open until midnight to give all a chance to claim the ballot.

The lists were officially closed last night, but Mr. Morris stated his belief that the special session of the legislature, September 14, will provide for the contingency by extending the period for registration. He has employed a force of twenty extra clerks, who were assisted this afternoon by Probate Judge J. P. Stiles with his office force.

Plans have been completed for an "all-day" victory parade here tomorrow. A holiday has been declared by the city commission and business will be suspended at noon.

Women who appeared before the election commissioners and his assistants during the past few days were apparently as thrilled with their new found right as a child with a new toy and many of them rushed immediately to the office of the tax collector in an effort to pay their poll taxes. They were informed that poll taxes were not due until October 1.

As the result of a misunderstanding or, as one of the women citizens expressed it, an error of judgment, the called meeting of the League for Women Voters, held Friday morning, to which the democratic women of the city and county had been invited through the press, finally wound up in a second after the first was over, when it was brought out that the league was non-partisan, and that the democratic women, non-members of the league, who had been championing the cause of democracy, were not eligible to vote on the resolutions which the league addressed to the subcommittee of the state democratic committee. Two resolutions, both urging that the subcommittee allow the women to vote in the primary, were passed by the league, over which Mrs. Haynes McFadden presided, and the other by a group of democratic women who remained after the league meeting was over, Mrs. J. K. Otley, ex-national democratic committee woman from Georgia, presiding.

When the question arose at the first meeting whether the women present would stand by the decision of the state executive committee, in regard to giving the women the ballot in the primary September 8, or take other means to secure the vote on this date in the event that the state committee should see fit to deny them the vote, the question of the authority of the state committee in a white democratic election came to the front.

Mrs. Downman's Motion. If it had not been for the skillful handling of the meeting by Mrs. Haynes McFadden, vice chairman of the league, and acting chairman of the meeting would have gone to pieces while being buffeted around the numerous discussions that were the outgrowth of a motion introduced by Mrs. Charles Downman for a ruling as to whether it was a league meeting or a meeting of democratic women, that the chairman ruled that it was a league meeting, and that only league members could take part in the voting committee resolution, not bar women voters.

How can a woman vote in a white democratic primary unless she is a democrat? asked Mrs. Otley. If the state democratic committee cannot make suitable arrangements for us to vote in the coming primary and rules that we cannot vote, then I, for one, will be governed by the leaders of my party. Not to vote in the white democratic primary is not to vote in the coming primary, and when one of the members of the league asked for a ruling as to whether it was a league meeting or a meeting of democratic women, that the chairman ruled that it was a league meeting, and that only league members could take part in the voting committee resolution, not bar women voters.

Just before the question was put, Mrs. Otley asked the chair for an opportunity to speak and asked all the democratic women present to remain and meet with her and send their own resolutions to the subcommittee. The resolutions of this meeting, which were submitted by Mrs. Otley, were as follows:

"Since we, a group of democratic women of Atlanta and Fulton county, having accepted the ruling of Attorney General Denny that women may vote in the primary of September 8, 1920, in mass meeting, accept the ruling of Attorney General Denny on the question of the right of women to participate in the democratic primary, we earnestly request the subcommittee of the democratic state executive committee to make arrangements for our participation in this primary. As democratic women, we take this opportunity to assure the democratic subcommittee of the state executive committee of our pleasure in the opportunity from this time forward of co-operating in the activities of the party to which we have so long been loyal."

It was at this point that developments started. The opinion given by Attorney General Denny that, under the nineteenth amendment, women can vote in any election, which had been read and discussed previously by Mrs. Elliott Cheatham, parliamentarian of the league, was quoted by Miss Eleanor Russell, who made the point that the state democratic committee had no control over the voting of women in this primary stating that no state law could interfere with the national law that disfranchises any qualified voter. She took the stand that the attorney general had ruled that women can vote, and that the state committee could not bar women voters.

Just before the question was put, Mrs. Otley asked the chair for an opportunity to speak and asked all the democratic women present to remain and meet with her and send their own resolutions to the subcommittee. The resolutions of this meeting, which were submitted by Mrs. Otley, were as follows:

"Since we, a group of democratic women of Atlanta and Fulton county, having accepted the ruling of Attorney General Denny that women may vote in the primary of September 8, 1920, in mass meeting, accept the ruling of Attorney General Denny on the question of the right of women to participate in the democratic primary, we earnestly request the subcommittee of the democratic state executive committee to make arrangements for our participation in this primary. As democratic women, we take this opportunity to assure the democratic subcommittee of the state executive committee of our pleasure in the opportunity from this time forward of co-operating in the activities of the party to which we have so long been loyal."

It was at this point that developments started. The opinion given by Attorney General Denny that, under the nineteenth amendment, women can vote in any election, which had been read and discussed previously by Mrs. Elliott Cheatham, parliamentarian of the league, was quoted by Miss Eleanor Russell, who made the point that the state democratic committee had no control over the voting of women in this primary stating that no state law could interfere with the national law that disfranchises any qualified voter. She took the stand that the attorney general had ruled that women can vote, and that the state committee could not bar women voters.

How can a woman vote in a white democratic primary unless she is a democrat? asked Mrs. Otley. If the state democratic committee cannot make suitable arrangements for us to vote in the coming primary and rules that we cannot vote, then I, for one, will be governed by the leaders of my party. Not to vote in the white democratic primary is not to vote in the coming primary, and when one of the members of the league asked for a ruling as to whether it was a league meeting or a meeting of democratic women, that the chairman ruled that it was a league meeting, and that only league members could take part in the voting committee resolution, not bar women voters.

FREIGHT TRAIN TAKEN BY OUTLAW SWITCHMEN

Chicago, September 3.—The freight train seized here last night by a band of men, believed to be members of the striking "outlaw" switchmen, was found early today near Bensenville, Ill., with the throttle wide open and the twenty-one freight cars apparently untouched. Several battles between freight crews and bands of the striking switchmen, who never regained their jobs, preceded the theft of the train which occurred shortly before midnight last night in the Chicago.

WILLAMETTE AND ST. PAUL YARDS AT CINCINNATI

Thomas White, the engineer, was driven from his post at the point of a gun and when Bert Zimpon, the fireman, resisted he was badly beaten. White immediately gave the alarm and after several hours search the train was found. Railroad officials believe the throttle had been pulled wide open and the train then abandoned by the band who stole it. It had apparently run down for lack of steam. While said the manner in which the thieves handled the engine convinced him they were experienced railroad men. Five suspects were taken into custody early today by the police.

40 CENTS WANTED FOR COTTON CROP

Minimum Price Fixed on Middling Basis by American Cotton Association. $60 a Ton Wanted for Seed.

Montgomery, Ala., September 3.—Appointment of a committee of fifty-five southern bankers, business men and officials of the various divisions of the American Cotton association, to confer with W. P. G. Harding, governor, and members of the federal reserve board, September 15, for the purpose of establishing a clear-cut pronouncement of policy on the financing of the 1920 cotton crop, marked the last session of the association here late today.

With adjournment sine die of the association, practically the entire program of policy recommended by President J. S. Wannamaker had been adopted, topped with a recommendation to members that cotton be held for a minimum price of forty cents, middling basis, with one cent per month added after November 1. Members were also urged to hold their cotton seed for $60 a ton. Other proposals adopted urged establishment of co-operative marketing systems in the cotton producing counties; the formation of an export corporation to sell cotton in central Europe; reduction of acreage to cotton and increasing acreage for food and forage crops; and retirement of 25 per cent higher grade cotton.

Southern banks with loans in eastern banks are requested in a general resolution, adopted this afternoon, to recall these loans in order that the money may be converted to financing the south's crops, and a resolution by former Governor Mann of South Carolina, calling on the governors of cotton states to proclaim September 20 "cotton day," on which all counties are to be held in all counties to develop interest in the program of the association.

Adoption of the report recommending the minimum price for cotton this year was attended by a heated debate. E. C. Powell, vice president of the association, opposing this figure on the ground that it was impractical in the light of generally declining prices. He was shouted down by the convention, and Dr. Bradford Lippitt, W. B. Folmar, of Troy, Ala.; J. C. McLendon, of Luverne, Ala.; and T. S. Watts, of South Carolina, supported the resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting vote.

The principal address of the day was delivered by Judge W. T. Ramsey, governor of the eleventh district federal reserve bank, who deplored the action fixing the price of cotton at forty cents, declaring that it could not be achieved. He brought a note of pessimism into the convention by declaring the farmer must practice strict economy and prepare for hard times. The convention earlier in the day voted to meet in 1921 at Dallas, Texas.

DYING MACSWINEY LIGHTING FLAMES

and America to make a "bombshell protest" to "shake the foundations of the British empire," according to the engineers of this movement.

Record for Hunger Strikers. Friday was the twenty-second day of MacSwiney's fast. This was a record for hunger-strikers. The hunger strikers who were released from Wormwood Scrubbs prison all had collapsed before their twenty-second day in prison.

At the lord mayor's request, members of his family visited him this morning and later they expressed fear that the end was not far away. Those who went to his cell included MacSwiney's wife, his brother, Sean MacSwiney, and his sisters, Annie and Mary MacSwiney. They arrived at 8:30 o'clock and remained for forty-five minutes.

Father Dominic, parish chaplain to MacSwiney, celebrated a special mass in the prison this morning.

The condition of Lord Mayor MacSwiney showed no radical change tonight, although the patient was said gradually to be growing weaker. Sean MacSwiney, his brother, remained at the prison tonight.

The Gaelic league announced tonight that for the first time during his hunger strike the lord mayor had complained to his wife of feeling very tired. The prisoner was unable to converse with his relatives. He is still quite conscious, however, and "his mind was as clear and his will as strong as ever."

Labor Leaders Appeal

Labor leaders this morning addressed an appeal to Premier Lloyd George, asking the lord mayor's release. The message said, in part: "We are convinced that the government's treatment of the lord mayor has already seriously jeopardized the hope of an early settlement of the Irish question on a basis of conciliation and appeasement, and has stained the name of Great Britain with dishonor in the eyes of the civilized world. By its persecution in prison of the lord mayor of Cork, the government has outraged public sentiment everywhere and his death will bring about a terrible explosion of anger which can only lead to further bloodshed in Ireland."

The tense situation here and in Ireland is causing the British public to steel its nerves for the shock of another Irish explosion. The people fear what may happen if MacSwiney dies, and the government's preparations for a possible outbreak of some mighty outburst.

Resolution is writ large on the Irish republican banners. There is no expectation that MacSwiney or any of his family or followers will weaken in the face of the strain of his life and later the lives of others.

Pope Praying for MacSwiney. From Rome came word to MacSwiney's friends that the pope remained in his chapel at the Vatican throughout Wednesday morning, reciting the litany for the dying and praying the deliverance of MacSwiney. It was also reported that his holiness has been receiving large numbers of telegrams from adherents of MacSwiney and his cause throughout the world, begging for a panel intervention.

government had considered accepting these irregular troops for official service, with restrictions, was another indication that dire things are possible very shortly.

As thought in anticipation of very serious business in Belfast, where the resentment of the Catholics has been growing, a battalion of the King's Royal Rifles was reported to have arrived there and a destroyer ready to strike and to stop their anchors off the city.

New Troops in Belfast

The arrival of a new troops in Belfast had the immediate effect of diminishing disorder in the city streets and the possibility that landings might be put ashore from the warships also tended to sober the disorderly crowd. Some sporadic sniping continued through Friday night and one soldier was wounded, according to belated cables.

The British military has been privately ordered by the government to be prepared for any emergency in case MacSwiney dies. The military authorities plainly are making ready to strike and to stop their anchors off the city.

NO SYMPATHY FOR MAYOR, SAYS EPISCOPAL BISHOP

Asheville, N. C., September 3.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, now starving himself to death in Brixton prison, London, has few sympathizers in England, declares Bishop Junius Horner, of the Episcopal church, who has returned to Asheville from England, where he went to attend the conference of bishops of the Anglican Communion, held in London. The bishop toured the British Isles and says that feeling is general.

Bishop Horner claims he voices the opinion that the majority of the Irish people themselves resent the rebellious activities of the Sinn Feiners and are without sympathy for the hunger strikers. "The country is a divided house," said the bishop, "and the situation has resolved itself into an attempt of a minority to force home rule upon a majority," says the bishop, who will not commit himself as to whether Ireland should have independence.

MAJOR OF NEW YORK PLEADS FOR MAESWINEY

New York, September 3.—Implying that further imprisonment of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork would disgrace the war aims of the United States, Mayor Hylan, democrat of New York, Thursday called Premier Lloyd George at London, demanding MacSwiney's release.

As mayor of New York, the largest city of the United States, and speaking for all its citizens, I respectfully urge you not to disgrace our war aims by further imprisonment of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, whose heroic fortitude in representing even unto death the opinions of the citizens who elected him has won the admiration of all who believe in rule of the people by the people. VICTORY CERTAIN, ASSERTS WALKER

Candidate for Governor Bases His Confidence on Receptions in Georgia Towns and on Many Letters Received.

Basing his confidence upon reports that have been coming into his headquarters in great volume, and upon his reception at various points where he has delivered his political addresses during the past few days, Clifford Walker Friday gave out a statement in which he unqualifiedly declares he will be the next governor of Georgia.

"In any contest," declared Mr. Walker, "whether it is of brain, brawn or skill, it is always gratifying to win. There is a greater satisfaction, however, than just winning your race. To know that, in all endeavors, one has been clean and honest and straightforward, counts more in after life than success at the tape. It isn't whether you won the game, it's how you played it that counts.

"I am going to be the next governor of Georgia—mark that prediction. But, whether or not I win this race, I will always have the double satisfaction of knowing that I ran a race to which no man can point with scorn, and which no man can disparage, and a race which was unselfishly conducted in a cause immeasurably superior to the ambition of one man.

"In after years it will mean more to look back upon the days during which I have traveled over Georgia, opposing with all my power and ability the threat of Hardwickism for our fair state, and to feel that I have humbly done my best in this emergency of honor than it would be to look back upon a term in the governor's chair won by any means that would weaken the cause to which I have devoted my entire effort.

"I have given of my strength and effort unspareingly. I have refused to be drawn into futile arguments with loyal candidates and I have devoted every effort to the defeat of ex-Senator Hardwick—the defeat of the man whose election would impugn the loyalty and honor of our state and cover the name of Georgia with shame for years to come.

"In the early stages of the race," continued Mr. Walker, "I offered to withdraw entirely if it was decided that any other loyal candidate was stronger than I and could bring about the defeat of Mr. Hardwick. It was clear, however, that I was ahead of all the others, and I continued to stay in the race, from day to day seeking to attack the Hardwick forces with arguments and arraigning the obstructionist ex-senator with a damning indictment of fact, backed by the uncontravertible evidence of the official records in every instance.

Concentrated Upon Hardwick. Mr. Walker, declaring that he has given his full time and effort to the race, disclaims any attempt to his party to the races on between other loyal candidates. He declares that he has concentrated his entire energy upon the defeat of Hardwickism, which he terms a menace to Georgia.

He also declares that he has refrained from the use of circus tricks in order to attract hearers when he delivers a political address. "I have stood fairly upon my own feet," he declared, "in every county where I have spoken. I have made no attempt to attract supporters from other counties in any instance, and I have had no camp followers on my trail to swell the size of my audiences. The papers have honestly reported the number of my hearers at every place. Crowds of several hundred have gathered in the county court-houses, in the open street, on the porch of a country house, in the bare space of a cotton warehouse. They have been crowds of strong, sober, influential men, preachers and bankers. They have listened with close attention while I presented exhibits of my opponent's record, and the men of Mr. Hardwick. They have heard me and have gravely accorded me their indorsement as I proved to them that Hardwick was a loyal and an obstructionist.

Mr. Walker further states that he has at no time mentioned the name of Mr. Holder and his other opponents, in his addresses, rather concentrating his efforts on the defeat of Hardwick, and that he has not engaged in a wrangle with loyal candidates who oppose him. If these candidates feel that they must run—despite the fact that their running splits the loyal vote, forming a very effective aid to Hardwick, I think it is their business, and a matter of which I take no account.

Opposed Hardwick. Mr. Walker further states that he has at no time mentioned the name of Mr. Holder and his other opponents, in his addresses, rather concentrating his efforts on the defeat of Hardwick, and that he has not engaged in a wrangle with loyal candidates who oppose him. If these candidates feel that they must run—despite the fact that their running splits the loyal vote, forming a very effective aid to Hardwick, I think it is their business, and a matter of which I take no account.

In looking back over his campaign Mr. Walker refers to meetings at Atlanta on Friday, August 27, as the most striking climax of the contest. This meeting, which was held in the Atlanta theater, brought out a crowd large enough to fill the building, and it was one of the most enthusiastic and remarkable political meetings ever held in this city.

"That meeting," declared Mr. Walker, "was a striking tribute to my opponent, Hardwick. The audience remained for ninety minutes, giving him a most careful and enthusiastic hearing.

In conclusion Mr. Walker says: "Maybe there are, as Hardwick claims, some few ex-service men who will vote for Little Tom. Maybe—but this is a safe statement: The ex-service men who vote for Tom Hardwick, the obstructionist, is the same man who, in 1917, would have dodged his obligation to his country and would have slipped away from the draft and played the slacker—had he dared."

Expresses Confidence. Walker, headquarters, growing more enthusiastic each day as the gubernatorial contest draws nearer a close, gave out confident predictions Friday that their candidate, Clifford Walker, would be the man chosen by the people for governor of Georgia on September 8. Those predictions do not take into account a run-over, but, on the other hand, the Walker men express the greatest confidence that Walker will win hands down on the first ballot. Among the many messages and telegrams that came to the headquarters Friday was a message from Mrs. Amelia Woodall, one of the best known woman suffrage workers in the state. Mrs. Woodall declares that she may be allowed to vote she is going to cast her ballot for Walker, giving up her vacation to help him win.

It. J. Spiller, a traveling man, who covers the state generally, reports on a trip he has just completed through twenty-five counties. These counties, located in western and central Georgia, declared Mr. Spiller, will all go for Walker. "Loyal democrats," he declared, "have centered upon Walker to defeat Hardwick, and I found that Mr. Walker is almost sure to carry each of the counties I covered." Mr. Spiller states confidently that Clifford Walker will win the race for governor on the first primary vote.

Holder Statement. The following statement was given out last night at the headquarters of John N. Holder, candidate for governor of Georgia. "At the close of the campaign John N. Holder has been making three and four speeches a day, and on every occasion he has appeared as fresh and vigorous as though it were his first day on the campaign trail. Mr. Holder will conclude his campaign with four speeches in Fulton county Tuesday, where his friends assert, he will get a substantial majority. Friday he spoke at Madison at 10:30 in the morning, and at Athens at 8 o'clock in the evening.

"Saturday Mr. Holder makes four speeches in northeast Georgia, in counties which his friends have promised him will be his on September 8. He speaks at Elberton at 10 o'clock in the morning, then at Cartersville at 8 o'clock in the evening, and at Dalton at 10 o'clock in the morning, and at Marietta at 8 o'clock in the evening.

"Closing his campaign in Fulton county Tuesday, September 7, Mr. Holder will speak at some central point, probably near the Grady monument, at 10 o'clock in the morning. At noon he will address the employees of the Southern Railway, while a big open air meeting to be announced later will be arranged for the evening."

KIWANIS TO ENJOY BARBECUE SATURDAY

Arthur Brooke, chairman of the Kiwanis committee on barbecues, announces that everything is in readiness for the annual Kiwanis club barbecue at the Burns cottage this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The barbecue will be prepared by Colonel J. C. Upchurch, of Fairburn, whose fame as a barbecue is known from the huckleberry thickets of Hall to the marshes of Glynn. He told the club at its luncheon last Tuesday that he has arranged barbecues for assemblages ranging from 25 to 6,000 persons.

Many valuable prizes will be drawn by lucky wives and sweethearts of the Kiwanians. The list of gifts includes articles ranging from hair switches to kodaks.

"THE MUSICAL WHIRL" TO BE RIOT OF COLOR

All Is Now in Readiness for Rising of First Curtain Monday Night.

"The Musical Whirl" rehearsal at the Atlanta theater last night was the last practice before the Atlanta Opera club presents its production to the public in the same theater on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. There will be no matinees.

The handsome lavender and gold curtain loaned by Neill O'Brien and all the other stage properties to be used in "The Musical Whirl" are here and will be in place on the stage Monday morning.

One of the hits in the first part of the show is Miss Gertrude Maurer, who sings "She is the Sunshine of Virginia." For this part Miss Maurer takes the character of a little school girl and a pantomime of children on their way to school is introduced here. Another feature of the first part is Cliff Durham's pretty tenor voice in "Silver Threads Among the Gold," together with the full chorus.

The first part is closed with Major Eugene Schmidt and the pony ballet in a song and dance sketch entitled "Goodby, Girls, Fare-Through."

The pony ballet includes Miss Nellie Sullivan, Miss Lillian Ship, Miss Ione Winnebush, Miss Margaret Ann McCormack, Miss Floyd Shipp, Miss Elsie Maurer, Miss Gertrude Fambrough and Miss Elizabeth Simmons. The ballet costumes have been made especially for "The Musical Whirl." They are bright red, trimmed in silver and present a beautiful spectacle in the show.

The proceeds from the sales of all tickets for "The Musical Whirl" will be donated to the Atlanta Churches Homes for Working Girls.

FRIDAY JINX HANDS K. O. TO WEATHER MAN

C. F. von Herrman, weather prophet for Atlanta and vicinity, met up with his old rival, the Friday jinx, yesterday. For the second straight Friday, the jinx, aided and abetted by the jinx, tossed Mr. von Herrman's predictions to the four corners. C. F. predicted clear weather for Thursday night and Friday. He was beaten by the jinx barely after the forecast had left his office. When J. Pluvius came along Thursday evening, it was at first thought that possibly he would go to Atlanta Churches Homes for Working Girls.

The cause of your having to stand in doorways while waiting for cars is a slight disturbance which seems to be central in the Gulf near the mouth of the Mississippi river. Generally cloudy, threatening weather is reported over the cotton belt, with scattered rains in all the cotton states.

The cloudy, rainy area extends northward over the mid-Rocky Mountain region. It is cool in the Ohio valley and northward, with light frost reported at South St. Mary. Unsettled weather, cloudy weather and a few showers is the general forecast for central and southern Georgia.

Tried to Hypnotize Her, Asserts Wife In Divorce Suit

Mrs. Martha H. Peters yesterday filed suit for divorce in the Fulton superior court against Fred Peters, a fireman at East Point, the owner of the Cherry Home bakery on Ponca de Leon avenue. The petitioners claimed that her husband had tried frequently to hypnotize her and had cursed her a number of times.

She asked that her husband be enjoined from removing any of his money from a local bank pending hearing on her application for alimony. A temporary injunction was signed by Judge John T. Fendie September 4.

Mrs. Minnie Louise King has brought suit against Frank Earl King, a fireman at East Point, in which she alleges that her husband was cruel and abusive to her. She says that she pleaded with him from time to time to mend his ways, but he refused to do so and she was forced to separate from him.

Mrs. Ida Chase Everett stated in her divorce suit filed against C. D. Everett that he told her that he was tired of her and had someone to take her place. She further alleges that after she had been told to go to a local hospital, where she was employed as a nurse, and created a disturbance; that the officials of the hospital were forced to have him arrested.

Humphries granted a temporary restraining order preventing the defendant from molesting the petitioner and set the case for hearing September 4.

Mrs. Minnie D. Pope has filed suit for divorce against John D. Pope in which she declared her husband applied to her every "cuss" word in the English language.

Mrs. J. B. Bean claimed in her suit against J. B. Bean that he came into contact with his stenographer and finally ran away with her. The petitioner set out that when she remonstrated with the defendant that he struck her and threatened to kill her.

FORT GAINES HEARS REAL DORSEY APPEAL

Hon. J. R. Slater Speaks to Clay County Voters in Behalf of Governor.

Fort Gaines, Ga., September 3.—(Special).—This was truly a busy day when a large crowd of Clay county's most progressive citizens gathered at the courthouse to hear a ringing address by Hon. J. R. Slater, who by his masterly oratory aroused much enthusiasm for the Dorsey campaign. The meeting was composed largely of Clay county's best citizens and the most striking fact was that most of them were former Hoke Smith supporters. He was escorted to Bluffton in this county, where again he received an overwhelming ovation from the staid Dorsey supporters.

It now looks like Clay county is in the Dorsey columns to stay.

HIS PAROLE BROKEN, HE RETURNS TO PEN

Montgomery, Ala., September 2.—Paroled in 1918 from serving a life sentence imposed for murder in the first degree, Daniel Wilkerson, of Mobile county, has been arrested and will be sent to the state penitentiary where he will spend the remainder of his early days, because he did not observe the terms of the document, extending him clemency.

Revocation of Wilkerson's parole was ordered by Governor Thomas E. Kilby upon information that the defendant had violated the state prohibition laws. He was convicted in Mobile circuit court in 1915, at the age of 49, years and paroled three years later.

ALABAMA MERCHANT KILLED IN QUARREL

Asheville, N. C., September 3.—F. W. Monnash, a prominent merchant of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was fatally wounded at Ridgecrest, near here this morning by J. Thomas Harris, a Ridgecrest merchant. Monnash was placed in an automobile and started for Asheville, but died before aid was reached.

Harris surrendered to a deputy sheriff and is being held in the Buncombe county jail without bond. The shooting is said to have taken place during a heated quarrel between the men. Harris, it is alleged, fired the contents of a double-barreled shotgun into Monnash at close range, one shot taking effect in the center of the forehead and the other in the abdomen.

Monnash evidently threw up his right arm to protect himself for the elbow is shot away.

"OPEN SHOP" POLICY FOR MOBILE PLANTS

Mobile, Ala., September 3.—Declaring that it was not their intention to fight union labor but to "stop union domination of our shops," seven of the largest shipbuilding and ship repair plants of Mobile have announced an "open shop" policy. The firms signing the agreement just made public include the Alabama Dry Dock and Shipbuilding company, two of the largest ship repair plants on the gulf. The company officials in the public notice inaugurating an open-shop policy, announce that all unionmen in their employ desiring to remain will be kept at work. The change to an open shop follows the recent strike here when minimum and affiliated trades went on strike for higher wages and a change in working conditions.

BIBB COUNTY DORSEY CLUB GAINING GROUND

Membership Now Over 1,500 More Than 400 Ex-Hoke Men in Club.

Macon, Ga., September 2.—(Special).—Fifty new members were added to the Bibb County Dorsey club today, bringing the total membership to more than 1,500. Included in the number are more than 100 former Hoke Smith supporters. Prospects for a landslide for Dorsey in Bibb county are brighter than they have been at any time since the present campaign began.

IMPORTS OF FOOD INTO UNITED STATES

Washington, September 3.—Foodstuffs imported into the United States during the seven months ended with July increased by more than $1,500,000,000 over the corresponding period in 1919, while exports decreased $500,000,000, according to department of commerce reports for July.

During the seven months' period imports of foodstuffs totaled $2,579,986,555, while exports amounted to $1,188,994,700. For the month of July foodstuffs imported totaled $232,325,042 and exports $176,125,116.

Exports of manufacturers for the seven months amounted to $2,450,315,503 compared with $1,998,585,785 for the same period in 1919. Exports of manufacturers in July totaled $342,820,201 and imports $159,010,586. Golf Tournament And Dinner-Dance.

The Country club committee of the Capital City club has arranged a championship golf tournament, followed by a dinner-dance, at which Tracy's orchestra, from Cincinnati, will be featured, this evening at Brookhaven.

Among those giving parties are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Martin. They will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Outley, Mr. and Mrs. George McCarty and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spretin.

Harry Bewick will be host to a party of four.

Walter H. Kenan will also entertain a party.

For Mr. and Mrs. Freeman

A reception-shower was given on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Freeman, of 459 Woodward avenue, at the home of Mrs. Freeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Agricola, 174 Grant street.

The presents were of silver and cut glass. The color scheme of white and pink was carried out in the refreshments and decorations.

Miss Lena Agricola and Margaret Wendolph, sister and cousin of the bride, served refreshments.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells, Mrs. J. R. Fleming, of Goochland, Mrs. P. Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Agricola, Mrs. Ida Martin, Miss Emily Agricola, cousin and uncle of the bride, Mrs. Lena Agricola, grandmother of the bride, Miss Mary Agricola and Lena Mae Martin, cousins of the bride.

Honoring Miss Cain.

Miss Alice Cain was honor guest at a matinee party yesterday afternoon at the Lyric theater, given by Miss Elise Wilson, who also followed the matinee with a party at the Capital City club. The decorations on the table were of white and pink. Invited to meet Miss Cain, who leaves this month for New York to enter Columbia college, were Misses Mary Frances Colledge, Rebecca Harmon, Frances Peabody, Gladys Griffin, William Pennell and Helen Wilson.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF BLACK - DRAUGHT

Black-Draught Highly Recommended by Illinois Man for Liver and Stomach Disorders - Used it for Fifteen Years.

Singerton, Ill.—"For fifteen years we have used Theodore's Black-Draught, and have not as yet found anything that could take its place," writes Mr. W. F. Rister, of this town. "I have used it for indigestion a number of times, and it gives relief," continues Mr. Rister.

"For sour stomach, a heavy, bloated feeling, it is splendid. And when the liver gets torpid, so that when you stoop and raise up suddenly you feel dizzy, a few doses will set you straight."

"We keep it and use for constipation and the above troubles, and find it most satisfactory. I can recommend it to others and gladly do so. For the number of years I have used Black-Draught now, I ought to know."

In its 70 years of usefulness, Theodore's Black-Draught has relieved thousands and thousands of persons suffering from the results of a disordered liver. And, like Mr. Rister, many people feel that, after using Black-Draught nothing can take its place.

If you haven't tried Black-Draught get a package today. Nearly every drugstore keeps it. —(adv.)

COULDN'T LEAVE HIS HOUSE IN 4 MONTHS

"When I began taking Tanlac I had been confined to my house for four months, but I never felt better in my life than now," said William Delaney, well-known employee of the City Street Department and who lives at 427 Fairview Ave., Seattle, Wash.

"I had stomach trouble and indigestion so bad that everything I ate disagreed with me," continued Mr. Delaney. "Gas would form after meals and cause me to have the worst sort of cramping spells. I actually suffered so much I dreaded to eat at all and I never dared touch meat or anything heavy. I also had rheumatism all over my body and it was so bad in my arms and legs I could hardly get about at all; then my nerves went back on me and I could never get a good night's sleep."

"I heard so much good about Tanlac that I decided to try it and it just seemed to me made especially for my case, for every one of my troubles left me so quickly it was really amazing, and I am enjoying better health now than I have in years. I have a ravenous appetite, eat anything I want and sleep like a log every night. I have gained a lot in weight, too, and put in a big day's work on the job every day. I feel like a different man in every way and Tanlac deserves all the credit for it."

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy Co. (adv.)

300 Fall Hats---and They're Perfect Beauties---Are in a Sale at

Specialized Hats $10 at a Specialized Price

Millinery Section Is on the Second Floor

NOT the first lot of new fall hats we've had to sell at $10 this season, but it's by far the biggest lot and the best lot we've had. And it was because of the success of these former $10 hat offerings that we planned this big one. We never seemed to have half enough, so we decided to put in an order about three times the usual size. We did. This is the result.

—Such hats! They're $10 in price only, for most of these hats could be distributed around on higher priced tables and 't would be almost impossible to detect the difference. You'll like the lowness of their price, yes, but it's the prettiness of these hats that will appeal to you most.

—Every material, style and color that's to be seen in millinery for fall is represented: rich Lyons silk velvet, sleek silky panne velvet, fine duvetyne, feather turbans, hatters' plush. Off the face, upturned, broad-brimmed, close-fitting, turban or tam styles. Black, navy, etrusque, pheasant, all of the best colors are here.

If you still have your fall hat to buy, if you want a pretty one at little price—this Sale is for you!

Imported Bead Bags At Sale Prices

—Came from one of the little republics in Europe that were born with the partition of Austria-Hungary. That's where the world's finest colored glass beads are made.

—These bags are the small overages left from a big importation. We got them at a fine price concession.

—At $1.69 are draw-string top bags of tiny round beads in mesh effects. Floral and mosaic designs. 25 different patterns.

—At $2.95 are bags made of bugle beads in combination with round beads. In light and dark color effects. 25 different patterns.

Had these bags been made in France, they'd have been not one whit prettier; but they'd have been several times their price!

Blouses of White That Are Hand-Made, Lovely as Can Be and Sale Priced $3.98

—One look at the quality of the white batiste or voile is proof conclusive that $3.98 is an extremely little price for these blouses.

—Note that the seams are all hand-stitched. The hem-stitching and drawn-work that is such a conspicuous part of their prettiness—that's all hand-done, too.

—A full dozen different styles from which to pick. Frilled or Tuxedo roll collars; long or short sleeves. Most too fine for $3.98 to remain here long. Today's the time to choose yours if you would choose from assortments at their best.

Nurses' Uniforms Especially Good for $3.98

—Good and durable gray and white striped or plain blue gingham has gone into them and plenty of it.

—Regulation style uniforms with skirts gathered on belt, convertible collars, button cuffs and pocket on skirt. All regular sizes at $3.98.

—Same style uniforms made of fast-black soisette, in sizes 36 to 46, are $4.95.

Boys' Wash Suits Down to $1.59

—About ten dozen of these wash suits. They're Stonewall make of firmly woven plain, striped or checked gingham that is fast colored.

—Russian blouse, belted coat, middie and Oliver Twist styles. All are made with pockets. They'll fit little chaps 2 to 6 years.

Notable Silk Petticoats For $7.98

—Part of a maker's clearance lot. It's a brand which has no superior—a brand which has been the very foundation of our petticoat business for several years.

—Petticoats of heavy quality taffeta or satin with fancy flounces. Colors are green, rose, tan, brown and a few black.

You'll like them for their prettiness no less than for the perfection of their fit and the length of service they'll give.

—$7.98 is a third to a half under full prices.

There is a small house, fine springs, and a good bold creek on this. The land is good strong rich and a little rough in places. It is well watered by the creek. We can sell this for $4,000, which is less than $50 per acre. Nothing adjoining this is to be bought for less than $100 per acre, and this compares favorably with them. You can double your money here. Frank M. Smith & Son, 704 Silver Bldg.
